

Celebrate the Holidays

by sharing your joy with The Olive Branch for Children

Giving with your heart

The best gift to give this holiday is love.

There are so many ways you can support The Olive Branch for Children this holiday season. From sponsoring a student’s school uniform or stationary, to purchasing a cup of porridge for a student in a remote community, to supporting the ongoing training of a Montessori teacher, your gift will mean the world to us at The Olive Branch for Children. In a world filled with stuff, the gift of love is priceless.
